WEEKLY BULLETIN

Friday 18th September 2026

News and highlights

This week in assembly we talked about what makes us unique and special; our differences and how they create our community. We read the story 'The Day You Begin', a story about finding the courage to connect with others when you feel different or like an outsider. The story follows children entering a new classroom or environment where they feel unique because of their skin, hair, clothes, language, or what is in their lunchbox. We talked about the importance of sharing your own true story and differences.

It has been great to see many of you at our year group Curriculum Evenings. The powerpoints will be shared on the Class Pages of the website in the coming week, for those who missed it. We look forward to seeing Y3 parents on Monday 21st Sept at 5.30pm, and Reception parents on Thursday 1st Oct, at 5.30pm. Thank you for your support.
